Form No. 12.—Will show the list of Muzrai works, the estimate for which does not exceed Rs. 50, and can therefore be sanctioned by the Deputy Commissioners or the Palace Controller.

Two copies should be prepared, one of which will be sent to this office on or before the 15th of the month following that to which the works relate and the other to Government.

Form No. 13.—This return should show the estimate for works exceeding Rs. 50 requiring the sanction of Government.

Form No. 14.— Abstract Measurement book.—The measurement of all works sanctioned by the Deputy Commissioners, Palace Controller and Government should be recorded in this book and should be in the custody of the officer in charge of Muzrai works.

Form No. 15.—Abstract Measurement Bill.—Payment to contractors should be made on this bill, the particulars recorded in the Abstract Measurement Book being entered in the form, and the bill sent to this office for pre-audit duly signed by the Deputy Commissioner or the Palace Controller as the case may be (vide this office Circular No. 38—Muzrai, dated 10th September 1904).

Form No. 16.—The receipts obtained from payees should be in duplicate, for which counterfoil books should be maintained, which should be in the personal custody of the Disbursing Officer, and the original retained by him and the other attached to the measurement bill forwarded to this office with the list of payments.

Form No. 17.—Completion bill for works.—As soon as a work is completed the payment due for its execution which was held in reserve should be drawn on this bill after obtaining the sanction of Government (to whom it should be forwarded duly countersigned by the Deputy Commissioner or the Palace Controller as the case may be) and the bill is audited by this office.

Form No. 18.—This form is intended for showing the list of works under construction but remaining unexecuted or incomplete at the close of the official year. It should be submitted to Government on or before the 15th July and a copy thereof sent to this office.

Form No. 19.—Monthly statements showing the credits of each of the Muzrai institutions in the Treasuries of Districts.

All sums received towards Koppa Kanika and contribution, receipts from Land Revenue, mohatarfa rent on toddy trees, fines, savings, refunds and other miscellaneous receipts, such as sale proceeds of unserviceable articles should be remitted at once to the Treasury, where it will be credited to 14. Miscellaneous Funds, (a) Institutions under Government management, Permanent, (b) Temporary management. Schedules in support of the credits under each head should be prepared by the Deputy Commissioners and the Palace Controller, in which details should be furnished in order of the major and minor institutions to which they appertain and sent to this office.

This cancels the Financial Form No. 36.
